TIM PETERSON thanked everyone in the room who helped so much with Rose Remembrance Day.

HAPPY DOLLARS

AL GRZESCHIK was happy Rose Day is over and they had a good time.

BETTY SCHADL had 3 happy dollars: #1 for good news from one who is giving her another grandbaby, #2 other son has just started a new job as regional manager; #3 for great Rose Day effort from AL & TIM.

VICKI KEPNES was happy to report that LARRY CHAMBERS and wife Mary are going to be parents in May.

TOM BURGE happily reported that all volunteers who worked at NEC Golf Tournament raised $18,000 for Edwin Shaw.

CHARLIE KEPNES thanked AL & TIM & Rose Committee for the great job they did this year.

SUE HARDING had 3 happy dollars: #1 for successful Latin Club delivery experience, #2 for AL & TIM & all who put in so many hours in Rose Office, #3 for her upcoming family reunion in MO. Then she shared 2 Joe Klope stories that had everyone in stitches.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COMMITTEE CHAIRS, please get 2008-2009 Budget Requests to Treas. TIM HUSSER this week before Budget is adopted next Wed.

The Healthy Baby Fair is Sat. Oct. 11 from 10 – 5 at John S. Knight Center and we still need someone for the 2-5 PM shift. Contact SUE FASSOLES (330-645-0545) if you can help.

TIM PETERSON and AL GRZESCHIK reported that we survived a hurricane in week one, financial chaos in week two, drastic drop in the stock market in week three and still managed to sell 4,209 rose orders in office, another 412 dozen on street and other locations, and gave the last 750 dozen to nursing homes. All captured information from data entry will be a great benefit for next year's Rose Remembrance Day—Oct. 3, 2009! GENE NEELY & daughters, LARRY and Laura YOTHERS, DR. PHIL PINNOW, GLENN BREITENSTINE, et al, and good neighbor Dano all helped sell roses at various locations. GEORGE DERRY, CINDY WEAVER & TRICIA DRABICKI spent many hours in Rose Office doing data entry on computers.
